1. A military inspection commission composed of four Soviet generals and two Rumanian generals, accompanied by other officers, came to Dobrich on 1 May 1951, in a party of 8 cars. After staying for a while in the town, the members went to inspect the fortifications and military installations in the areas of Silistra and Balchik. They also inspected the underground airfield at Dobrich.
2. [REDACTED] inspection commission would inspect the Yugoslav and Greek border areas, and would then return to Constanta via Silistra.
3. [REDACTED] of the airfield in the fields near Uzibey village had been entirely completed by the beginning of April. This airfield is a square, five kilometers to a side. It is not yet being used. The aircraft presently located at the hidden airfield in the forest of the Dogan Yuvasi (sic) district near Balchik will be transferred to the Dobrich airfield.
